THE FIREMEN.

AT A MEETING OF GOTHAM ENGINE COMPANY No. 16, held at the engine house, on Tuesday evening May 8, 1855, the following preamlbe and resolutions were adouted. May 8, 1855, the following promibe and resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, our esteemed associate, ANTONIO CRACCIO-LA, lest his life while in the discharge of his duty as a fireman, May 8, 1825, which event is mouraful and unexpected, stronds un with gloom, therefore.

Resolved, That in the death of our brother fireman so suddenly deprived of life, while in the performance of those high and important duties which he had voluntarily assumed, we realise the truth of that passage in Holly Writ, that in the midst of life we are in death, "—As a fireman he was ever prompt and active, and was beloved as a faithful riend and companion.

Resolved, That we sympathize with his sorrowing wife and orphan children in their bereavement, that we will attend his tuneral in a bedy, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to his tamily.

CHAS. A. BOOTH,

A. T. A. MEETING. OF THE SEVENDENTH WARD.

AT A MEETING OF THE SEVENTEENTH WARD Democratic Republican Committee, held on Tuesday evening at Hermitage Hall, corner of Allen and Houston streets, the following preamble and resolutions were offered by John Vandenwart, Esq., and seconded by George Schursman Eeq., and adopted unanimously:

Whereas, at the last general election, we, the members of the democratic party, which knows no difference between native and adopted citizens, met with a partial defeat, brought about by the combined efforts of fanatics, bigets, and traitor politicians; therefore—
Resolved, It is with extreme pride we, as the Democratic brought about by the combined efforts of fanatics, bigets, and traitor politicians; therefore—

Resolved, it is with extreme pride we, as the Democratic Committee of the Seventeenth Ward view the position, and also the acts, of the Hon. Pernando Wood, and we congrate the democracy of the city in having elected a chief magistrate in whose administration the democratic party will bereatter refer to with pride and pleasure.

Resolved. That we, as good cithens, admire the course his honor the Mayor has pursued since his inauguration, believing it to be beneficial to our party, and creditable to this great and growing city.

Resolved, That we, as the representatives of the voters of this ward, will sustain his honor the Mayor in all necessary reforms he may make, knowing of his honesty of purpose and pure disinterestedness, his moral courage, and solicitude for the welfare of this community.
